

HANNA COMMONS

Located on ten acres in south Indianapolis, Hanna Commons is a new-construction apartment building with robust amenities. The project aims to address homelessness through permanent, multifamily housing with expert on-site supportive services, provided by Adult & Child. The property is located within walking distance of a grocery store, pharmacy, bank, and area transit. The project has strong local support, led by the South Indy Quality of Life Plan leadership and its housing task force.
